THE HICKMAN STOCK FOR A

The Old Veteran, H. BUCHANAN, the friend of the people, the man who keeps the prices down, has arrived in Hickman with a Steamboat load of strictly first class GOODS, all New, Elegant, Reliable and Substantial. I claim to have the Largest Stock, the Best Stock, and by a Big Majority, the CHEAPEST STOCK in Hickman, and I am determined to keep up my reputation for fair dealing, and for selling First Class Goods at LOWER prices than any house in this section of country.

H. BUCHANAN.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.,
FRIDAY, : : NOV. 4, 1887.

THE "White Caps" in Indiana duplicate the "Klucks" in Tennessee. The chickens have come home to roost.

GEN. BEN BUTLER says that Hon. B. Brewster, Democratic nominee for Governor of Massachusetts, will be elected.

The most staggering blow which the Democracy of Massachusetts has received this year has been dealt. Gen. Butler, who has been elected, will support the State ticket.

Gov. BUCKNER has refused to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of "Jack" Agge, now in the jail at Lexington, whom he is to be taken Friday and hanged for murder.

THE Owensboro Messenger says that Green River Island, the territory about which there is a dispute between Indiana and Kentucky, contains some of the richest farming land in the world.

ITALIAN laborers attempted to burn alive thirty of their fellow countrymen at Paris, Mich., by setting fire to a house in which they were asleep. All escaped without injury.

THE Globe-Democrat is fully justified in the following list:

Gen. H. K. Jackson, of Georgia, never to be called in need of a friend. He has been a soldier, a statesman, a patriot and a hero. He has been a soldier, a statesman, a patriot and a hero.

The remains of Gov. Madison of Kentucky, have been removed from Belmont, near Frankfort, where they were placed at his death in 1818, and interred in the cemetery at the latter place. He was the first Governor who died during his term of office.

GOV. GORDON, of Georgia, is making some eloquent speeches in the Ohio campaign, vindicating the loyalty of ex-slaves. His speeches are applauded, but Ohio is a Republican State, and there will be very little doubt that he will vote Republican next Tuesday.

REV. C. H. SPURGEON is credited with having refused to accept of the income tax of $50,000 for one hundred sermons to be delivered in this country. He is true, Mr. Spurgeon is a man of the right material; not one who makes a money-making out of religion. The world needs many more of such men.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. is afflicted with an epidemic of scarlet fever, which has been spreading with rapidity and ignorance of parents who send their children to school in the midst of the epidemic of the disease. A little bag of camphor worn by the youngsters is sometimes found supposed to prevent all danger from the fever.

SENAIOR CULLUM is entirely sincere, no doubt, in his proposition to establish a new telegraph system for the purpose of "drowning" Jay Gould. Would it not be well, however, for him to defer that stupendous project until his plan for a Federal appropriation of the country shall be made successful?

SOMEBODY in New York is criminally negligent in permitting passengers from the cholera-infected districts of the Old World to land there and on the coast of the country. A dozen Italian have been found in Chicago fresh from Palermo, where the cholera rages, and others have gone from there to New York, and others to New York, and others to New York.

Six States will elect one or more State officers next Tuesday. These States are Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Several States on the same day, will elect members of one or both branches of their Legislatures. For an off year the canvasses which are in progress are unusually interesting. Of the legislative contests, that of Virginia is the most exciting.

AND now a Judicial Daniel has come to the front in Pennsylvania. Chief Justice Gordon decides that a saloon keeper need not see that his guests are protected while in his place of entertainment, just as a railroad company is obliged to keep the peace, and protect its passengers from any disorderly person aboard its cars.

LET US HAVE PEACE.

On last Monday, the President received a large delegation of prominent gentlemen from Great Britain, who desired his cooperation in securing a treaty between that country and the United States which should provide for the amicable settlement of disputes between the two Governments by arbitration. Mr. Cleveland responded, urging the importance of such an understanding.

The President responded as follows: "Great Britain is the most powerful nation in the world, and it is the duty of the United States to maintain peace with her. It is the duty of the United States to maintain peace with her."

It is the duty of the United States to maintain peace with her. It is the duty of the United States to maintain peace with her. It is the duty of the United States to maintain peace with her.

PROHIBITION IS MAYFIELD.

ITS FAILURE THE FAULT OF TEMPERANCE PEOPLE.

From West Kentucky Gazette.

The effect of local option in Mayfield under the present system of enforcing the law in the city, is to close the doors of the saloons, and to drive the saloon keepers and their customers into the streets. It is a failure, and it is the fault of the temperance people.

THE OBLIGATIONS OF LAWYERS.

From West Kentucky Gazette.

The speech of Gen. Butler in behalf of the condemned anarchists is a masterpiece of special pleading, and it also suggests certain practical questions regarding the obligations of lawyers to society. It is true that a member of the legal profession has a right to use his skill for the purpose of procuring the punishment of persons known to be guilty of crime.

HICKMAN TO MEMPHIS.

From West Kentucky Gazette.

A correspondent of the Hickman Courier writes an interesting account of the country from Hickman under the bluff down to Memphis. This trip and letter, as it seems, is a sequel to the recent excitement in that vicinity about a rail road being built from Hickman to Memphis. We happen to know from very high authority that the Illinois Central Company have, for some time, felt it a necessity to their system of roads to have a northern connection with Memphis, and the Mississippi river.

OUR COLORED FOLKS.

From West Kentucky Gazette.

In the twilight of our progress, we do not desire to boast of our future, but we cannot help flattering ourselves upon the present condition of our progress in this quarter of the country. For the past two years the colored citizens generally have made many advances towards a higher and nobler attitude. One by one the neglected negroes are being educated, quickly come and quickly vanishing. We are beginning to have eight of the old "cast iron rule," and with unflinching courage we are pushing the march onward and upward. The negro has been the "nub," and now endeavors to stick it. Better houses and better schools are being erected. When we let politics alone and begin to lift ourselves from degradation, filth and immorality, we can then look forward to a new era in our race.
